THE SECRET PLACE IS THE PLACE YOU SET ASIDE TO MEET WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT EACH MORNING

Places Matter.

Places matter to God.

You see, He made places before He even made people! The first known Assignment for The Holy Spirit was to a specific place. “And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters,” (Genesis 1:2).

Jesus knew The Holy Spirit would appear and reveal Himself in a specific place (read 1 Corinthians 15:4-7 and Acts 1:2-4).

Jesus scheduled miracles to occur in specific places (John 4:4).

The instruction of Jesus to a blind man was to go to a specific place (John 9:1-7).

Naaman, the leper, was instructed by the prophet to dip in the Jordan River seven times to receive his healing...The Place of Obedience.

Elijah was instructed to go to a specific place, for his financial provision (1 Kings 17).

Rebellion to enter The Place of Obedience always produces tragic results (Jonah 1).

So, nothing could be more important than The Secret Place...where you enter the Presence of God and become changed, corrected, informed and loved.

I have lived for more than half a century, preached 16,000 times in 39 countries of the world. Yet, as of this writing, only five people in my lifetime have ever invited me to come and observe their private place of prayer, their “Secret Place.” Many ministers have shown me gymnasiums, Sunday School rooms, sanctuaries and even $500,000 kitchens. Only five have shown me their Secret Place.

It is so important that you respect your daily companion, The Holy Spirit, enough to set aside a specific place of solitude and intimacy for Him to meet with you.

The Holy Spirit qualifies for exclusivity.

Though my private prayer room was established years before 1994, I fell in love with the Person of The Holy Spirit on Wednesday morning, at 7:00 a.m., July 13, 1994. That’s the day that I would trade for every other day of my life.

Prior to that experience, I had not designated a specific room for The Holy Spirit. Neither had I named the room, “The Secret Place.”

Before July 13, 1994, places had never really mattered much. From 15 years old, I traveled by bus to speak in churches across the United States. My first crusade was as a 15-year-old teenager.

Then, I attended Bible College for three semesters, and entered full-time evangelism on February 4, 1966, at the age of 19. That was 35 years ago.

Jesus often ministered to thousands. Yet, when He wanted to impart and create radical change in His disciples, He pulled them aside into a place of privacy (Mark 6:31).

The ministry of Jesus was explosive. It was powerful. Yet, He knew the Rewards of Solitude.

- ▶ Solitude is necessary for intimacy.
- ▶ Intimacy is necessary for impartation.
- ▶ Impartation is necessary for change.

You, too, must move away from the voices of others...to distinguish His Voice.

- ▶ Withdraw from the crowds.
- ▶ Disconnect from the demands of parasitic relationships.
- ▶ Depart from deceptive influences.

Create this very day a private place, sanctified and exclusive for the incredible relationship between you and the One Who created you, The Holy Spirit (Job 33:4).
